

Children's Theatre Company

in Association with
The Baha'i Unity Center
& Lenz Entertainment

FARMER RABBIT'S FIESTA Reflection Q&A

Themes:

Unity in Diversity

Gender Equality

Elimination of the Extremes of Wealth and Poverty

Responsibility of the Wealthy

Theme: Extremes of wealth and poverty

Where did Farmer Rabbit get all his food from?

Why was there no food for the other animal friends? Where had it all gone?

If Farmer Rabbit hadn't shared his food what would have happened to the other animals?

Why didn't Farmer Rabbit share his food from the very beginning?

(Was he so comfortable he didn't really understand how it felt like for his friends and didn't think about how he was affecting them?)

Theme: Gender Equality

In the Farmer Rabbit songs (on the CD) is Farmer Rabbit a boy or a girl?

What does a farmer do?

Can a girl be a Farmer?

Can a boy be a Farmer?

Can a girl be: a dancer? a teacher? a nurse? a doctor? a chef? a cleaner? a scientist? a policeman? a firefighter? an astronaut?

Can a boy be: a policeman? a firefighter? an astronaut? a scientist? a chef? a doctor? a nurse? a teacher? a cleaner? a dancer?

Theme: Unity in Diversity

How many different kinds of animals are in the play?

How does a rabbit look different from a mouse? How does a chipmunk look different from a bird?

In what ways do you look different from the friends in your class?

What does "fiesta" mean? Is that an English word? (discuss diversity of cultures, languages, foods, etc)

Is everyone unique and different in their own special way?